NOTES ON CEREMONY

The Mace and Batons

These symbols of the authority and history of the University are made from newel posts from the original main staircase of Old Main, the oldest University building. They are carried by members of the faculty who have served as chairpersons of the University Senate or Campus Faculty. The Chief Marshal (macebearer) is the current chairperson of the Campus Faculty.

Marshal's Gowns

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, Cardinal, or Razorback Red.

Honor Stoles

Cardinal or white stoles denote students who are candidates for University-wide honors. White represents High Honors (summa cum laude) and Cardinal represents Honors (cumma laude).

Academic Regalia

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim on doctoral gowns indicate nature of the degree (black or dark blue - Ph.D.; light blue - Ed.D.) The trim on all hoods identifies degree field. Lining of hoods denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institution.

A.M. Feland III

The name of Armstead M. Feland III ranks high among the people who have brought innovative leadership to the agricultural economy. He is nationally known for his role in expanding agricultural purchasing cooperatives which buy large amounts of supplies and equipment for sale to farmers.

The assets of the Arkansas Farmers Association are 25 times greater than they were when Mr. Feland became manager of the Association in 1957, and its total sales volume is 12 times greater, reaching a figure of 124 million dollars in 1977. He served as the first president of Universal Cooperatives which was organized in 1973 to serve farmers throughout the country, and was instrumental in establishing this organization through a merger of two nationwide cooperatives. Last year he received the National Award for Outstanding Cooperative Statesmanship conferred on him by governmental agencies and eleven national cooperative organizations. He has served as chairman and Board member of the American Institute of Cooperation and currently is chairman of the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives. In these capacities, he has represented most of the three million agricultural producers in this country.

Mr. Feland is a director and past chairman of the Sixth District Farm Credit Board for the St. Louis Bank for Cooperatives, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, and Federal Land Bank.

Distinguished Alumni Citations

Elsijane Trimble Roy

Elsijane Trimble Roy is a singularly outstanding leader in the legal profession in Arkansas. Her diversified career carried her to a new height of judicial distinction last November when she became the first woman in the history of Arkansas, and one of the few in the history of the nation, to be appointed to a federal judgeship.

Judge Roy received her law degree from the University of Arkansas in 1934. She practiced law in her native Lonoke and in Little Rock until the outbreak of World War II. During the war years she served as an attorney for the Arkansas State Revenue Department, as supervisor of its Income Tax Division, and as chief price attorney for the Office of Price Administration.

She then practiced law in Blytheville for 18 years, returning to Little Rock in 1963 to become law clerk to Associate Justice Frank Holt of the Arkansas Supreme Court. In 1966 she was appointed circuit judge for the Sixth Judicial District of Arkansas.

She became the first woman to be appointed a justice of the State Supreme Court, and was appointed two years later as United States District Judge for the Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas.

Among her many honors and responsibilities have been her service on the Arkansas Constitutional Revision Study Commission, her appointment as a member of the Medical Advisory Council for the University's Medical Center, and her election as Arkansas Woman of the Year in 1976.

Miller W. Barber, Jr.

Miller W. Barber, Jr., is one of the most consistently successful professional golf players in the history of the game.

As a student at the University of Arkansas in the years 1951-1955, Barber won the Southwest Conference Championship and went on to become the eighth largest money winner since the professional tour was organized 62 years ago. Only the legendary Jack Nicklaus was able to match Barber's eight year performance from 1967 to 1975 in winning at least one PGA tournament each year. The largest single purse in the history of golf was won by Barber in 1973, a $100,000 purse for winning the World's Tournament at Pinehurst over a record number of 144 holes.

Twice during his illustrious career he has been picked for the Ryder Cup team composed of the top professionals in the country to represent the United States in international match play. His many accomplishments in golf resulted in his election in 1975 to the Arkansas Hall of Fame.

Barber is an inspiration to all athletes and fans. At the age of 47 he led the qualifiers in the 1977-78 winter tour in points required for eligibility in the World Series of Golf, and earlier this year he won one of the tour's major tournaments, the Phoenix Open.

Jack East, Jr.

Jack East, Jr., is a dynamic business and civic leader and strong supporter of the State's educational programs. He has served as president of Fred S. James and Company of Arkansas, Inc., an insurance brokerage firm, for the past seven years, and previously served as President of Rebsamen and East and the East, Cashion and East Companies, insurance and bonding firms.

Mr. East, who graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1948, has served his State, community and alma mater in many and varied ways. He served four terms in the House of Representatives of the Arkansas General Assembly. He has been an effective leader in such urban development programs as Downtown Little Rock Unlimited, Urban Progress of Little Rock, the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce, and the Arkansas Arts Center in the State's capital city. He is a past president of the Pulaski County Association for the Crippled.

His loyal and dedicated service to the University of Arkansas was exemplified in his work as President and as a member of the Board of Directors for the University's Alumni Association.

His ability as a business leader is recognized throughout the nation and he has served as chairman of the board and as president of the National Association of Surety Bond Producers.

*Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the Mountains of God
Over the fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod
Beacon of hope in thy ways dreary lighted
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us,
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you. — Brodie Payne*
